

Please join us on Monday, June 26, 12 noon at the Muhammad Ali Center for a...

SPECIAL NETWORK LUNCHEON

to welcome distinguished historian

CHARLES B. DEW, PH.D. TO LOUISVILLE

author of

“THE MAKING OF A RACIST”

Historian Charles Dew was born in 1937 and grew up in St. Petersburg, Florida. His parents, along with every white person he knew, believed without question in the inherent inferiority of black Americans and in the need for segregation. In his book, “The Making of a Racist,” he describes what he learned as a child and how he gradually overthrew those beliefs. Dew discussed his book on NPR’s Diane Rehm Show.

Reservations and payment (of $35 for lunch) is required in advance no later than June 15, 2017.

Please make checks payable to Leora Brown School and mail to P. O. Box 441, Corydon, IN 47112. Contact networkemail@gmail.com or phone 502/434-2666.

NETWORK (New Energy To Work Out Racial Kinks) is a project of the Leora Brown School, the 1891 rehabilitated Corydon Colored School in Corydon, Indiana, that was adapted to reuse as a cultural/educational center in 1993.