

Giving a Compliment

One of Muhammad Ali's 6 Core Principles is Giving. The definition of Giving is "to present voluntarily without expecting something in return." We can all give something to help someone else. An easy way to brighten someone's day is to give a compliment. Use this sheet to give a compliment to the people in your life! Write your compliments below and then share them in-person, by text, by web call, or email.

Family Member, Friend, Teacher, Neighbor	My Compliment
Example: Mom	Example: I like your shirt. It is really pretty.
